Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the mode "reasonable terms, but can avail themselves of the experience of 20 years" practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well awall personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent formished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Burton did businesset the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any, persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business helove the Patent Office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity uniquencess. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the heat informed and most skilled Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventure that they cannot emply a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

83- A meeting of the Whigs of New port was held at the State House last eve ning. The Hon. George G. King was clected Chairman, and W. H. Cranston Secretary.

The following gentlemen were elected delegates to represent this city in the Whig State Convention, and the Whig Congressional Convention for the Eastern District, to be holden in Providence this

EDWARD W. LAWTON, HENRY Y. CRANSTON, MICHAEL FREEBORN, SETH W. MACY, CHARLES H. MUMFORD, WILLIAM H. CRANSTON.

The delegates was authorized to fill any vacancies in their number. The meeting then adjourned.

II We certainly think that the Democratic party have done our friend Gen. Wilbur great injustice in not numinating him as their candidate for General Treasurer. He has always been a firm and uncompromising Democrat, and has invariably stond by the party in their adverse as well as prosperous days. He has been repeatedly elected, and as often defeated .--And now they drop him; to be sure, he has only lest the honor of an empty nomination, for all agree that the Democratic cambidates cannot be elected. But we do not like to see our friend the General disposed of in auch an unceremonious manner. We fear that there is rank treason somewhere. The nominations were made in open Convention, and there sat our friend Millon Hall, Esq., the bosum friend of Gon. Wilbor, and yet no cound was heard from the lips of any one, in favor of the General.

It is true that the General has been seen of late loitering around an old building, formerly eccupied as a Distillery, and which is used by a mysterious collection of men, in ghostly character, who are said to be "Sam's" troops. Now whether the General has over made any terrible promises in that old building, "with his right hand on no set uneast."—or whather the Democracy, we are unable to say. It has been whispered that the General is to be Sam's candidate for General Treasurer, —but of the truth of this we know anthing. Sam's Convention was held yesterday, and we rather think that the General's name was made use of; he probably bed a race with another Sam, better known as Sam A. Parker. Well, they are both first-rate nich. As far as the Rum question is concerned, a divided delegation attended the Convention from this city. Sam's organization here was first made by the Carson League men and Sons of Temperance,but, of late, we rather think that the Devil's troops, as they are called, have largely incressed and are now triumphant in the Council,-in other words, the advocates of Rum or the opponents of the Maine Law have got the upper hand. Well, there is no accounting for how strangely some fish

TT The steamer Atlantic has arrived a New York, and brings confirmation of the news of the death of the Emperor of Russia. The Telegraph is not working, and we have no particulars.

The editor of the Melbourne Argus, as an apology for raising the subscription from $10 to $20 per annum, gives an account of the expenditures of that paper. The total cost is £100,000 (nearly half a million of dollars) a year. Editorial and other expunses amount to $1500 daily for the paper, which half a dozen years ago was published at one thirtieth of that price.

According to the Philadelphia Bulletin, a ; recruiting office has been established in Philadelphia for the British army in the Crimon.

In the last number of the Edinburgh Review there is a striking article on the subject of "Private Bill Legislation," which is as worthy of attention in this country as in England; for, although there is en yet no comparison between the two countries in the amount of this exceptional Letislation yet the tendency here, as in Phyland, is to convert legislative bodies into more ma chines for advancing the interests of individuals and associations at the expense of the public.

The number of personal, private, and locul acts in force in Great Schlain the reviewer states to be over twenty-six thousand, and the larger portion of these have been enacted during the reign of Queen Victoria. "It is," says he, "a remarkable fact, that, although the private acts of the United States of / prica up to 1845 are comprised in a cit ile 8vo., the local and personal and prayer: statutes of the reign of Victoria alone occ 77 upwards of 70 huge folio volumen." It is frightful to think of such a mass of the number. But the compliment to the United States is more apparent that : " The great mass of private legiclation in Great Britain is in reference to remorations, and with these the United States can have but little to do. The legislation of the States must be searched to discover the remainder of the aforesaid "seventy lauge folio volumes." Wa may hope that even this search would not quite fill up the blank, but it would go a great way.

In one respect we are confident the United States are far bohind England-fortunate inferiority; and that is, in the expense of this private legislation. The most striking illustration of this is found in the case of milway legislation. We think it is safe to ussert, on the strength of evidence that has come before us from a great vuriety of British publications, that not much less than one-third of the entire cost of the British railway system has been incurred, in the first place, in getting railway system charters through Parliament, and, in the second in projecting before that body the interests of existing railways from destructive tival

In the case of the Great Northern Railway it was shown that the Parliamentary expenses, before a spade was put into the ground, amounted to the enormous sum of over two millions of dollars. The directore of the Southeastern Railway recently stated that their Purliamentary expenses in the effort to beat off competitors had amount. ed during the last hine years to an annual average of two hundred and lifty thousand dollars. These are specimens merely of the wasting character of such legislation. Every railway has not merely to wage a costly war for its first establishment, but war forever after; and for all this it has to pay. We are not quite so bad as this; but how long will it be before the copy rivals the original ?-[Charleston Mercury.

Monument to "Kit North."-It has been resolved that the monument to the late Prof. Wilson should be a collustal statue of bronze, to be placed on a pedestal in the open air, in some public situation in Edinburg. It was stated by Mr. Robert Chambers, the honorary secretary of the general committee, that the subscriptions already recieved exceeded £1,100, and that the aum required would be about £1,500.

HE WASN'T AN INISHMAN.-A little incident occurred in one of the schools in West Lynn, on Wednesday, says the News, which is, perhaps worth relating; the teacher asked a little American girl whe the first man was.

She answered that she did not know .--The question gwas put to the next acholar, an Irish child, who answered-"Adam, sir," with apparent satisfaction .-"La," said the first scholar, "you needn't feel so grand about it, he wasn't an Irish-

JAMES HENNEST, GARDENER JAMES HENNESY.

It was the liberty to inform the citizens of Newport that he is ready to execute Gardening business in all its branches, such as Fruning, Planting, and Folcing, from the Mushroom to the Pine Apple. Also in laying out the grounds with care and nextness. The citizens will wonder he did not come out before the public cre tois. There is no man but what has his own reasons. Now he has nothing to stop him. He in like manner has those from the same place with him to prove he served a regular apprenticeship and he also paid a large fee.—He has a man that will back him from one hundred to one theorems dollars, that be will maintain what he says. He is ready at any time to contest the matter with any rean or boy, that he has served in any part of Europe, his apprenticeship, with the business. No other man or boy need apply.
